

Universal Design for Learning (UDL) K-12 Lesson Plans

WHY UNIVERSAL DESIGN FOR LEARNING?

Classrooms are filled with students who:

Universal Design for Learning Independent Study Course

This course is designed to provide educators with introductory information about the foundations and essential components of the Universal Design for Learning (UDL) framework, as well as strategies, and tools related to designing lesson plans within a UDL framework. It is comprised of three units - UDL Foundations, Planning Lessons, and Creating Lessons. This course is worth 10 inservice points and counts toward the ESE Renewal Requirement.

Registration:

- No registration in LAB is necessary.
- Go to <https://fl-pda.org/>.
- Go to Independent Study Courses.
- Click Sign in and create an account.
- Search for Universal Design for Learning under Available courses and click it.

FAQ: https://fl-pda.org/docs/BEESS_Portal_FAQ_Independent_1_15_19.pdf

For additional information contact
Carol.Beitler@browardschools.com